Joining FBLA, What’s In It For Me?

FBLA is a co-curricular student organization. What does that mean? Well it goes along with the business classes we are taking. It provides many opportunities including the following:

- Personal growth and build confidence
- Leadership skill development
- Show off our business skills
- Travel and Network with others

2020-2021 State Theme: Dare to Dream

“How can FBLA help me achieve my dream?”

Member responses will be posted here in each newsletter this year and on the bulletin board.

Officers Attend SLOTS

What is SLOTS? It stands for Summer Leadership Officer Training Session. Each year the FBLA officers attend SLOTS to learn about the office they have been elected to and to plan for the upcoming year.

Participation in SLOTS is fun and helps get the school year off to a great start. This year SLOTS will be virtual and held locally. More information to Let’s Get Motivated for a Great Year!

Fall Motivational Rally, normally in Perry Georgia in October, will be virtual this year. Members will hear a motivational speaker. More information to come.

Looking forward to seeing what the virtual rally will be like.
